

A Month in Morocco

Fred and Denise Cook

V. 1.00 October 2025

"Travelling gives you home
in a thousand strange places,
then leaves you a stranger
in your own land"

~Ibn Battuta

Morocco is Easy

- Ferries from Spain, France, and Italy. Road access from Mauritania. (NO access from Algeria.)
- All major roads are paved. Campgrounds and wild camping are plentiful.
- Cell coverage is nearly total and costs, including internet, are very reasonable.
- Costs are low for food, fuel, and most services. Spare parts can be expensive.
- Sights are amazing!

Language Barrier (?)

- National Language is Arabic
- Older Moroccans still speak French
- Younger Moroccans want to speak English
- Between 30 and 80% are Berbers

Food!

- Tajines
- Couscous
- Brochettes
- Bastilla
- Coffee and Mint Tea

Shopping

- Food, fuel, supplies
- Rugs
- Jewelry
- Ceramics
- Tourist Junk
